Autumn - By Sofia

I will put into autumn

the crunch of the sunrise coated leaves, the smell of roasting pumpkins sailing through the windows, and the crackle of a bonfire on a jet black night.

I will put into autumn

the bang of the lilac,ocean blue, baby pink fireworks, the last glow of the shining sun before the darkest night of the year, and the coffee brown trees dancing in the breeze.

